Student individuality addressed by U of C Federal Credit Union scholarships

BOULDER, CO January 30, 2004— Scholarships for college-bound high school seniors and students already enrolled in college level courses are available through U of C Federal Credit Union. In addition to the usual criteria of merit and need, applicants are also eligible based on community volunteerism, life philosophy and career commitments. Three scholarship categories are available:

U of C Federal Credit Union MR Hellie Scholarship – This scholarship is awarded to high school seniors with Credit Union membership based on need, individual accomplishments and goals.

U of C Federal Credit Union Volunteers In Action Scholarship – High school seniors who have demonstrated exemplary volunteer efforts are eligible for this award.

U of C Federal Credit Union Ray Johnson Scholarship - This award is given to college students with credit union membership who demonstrate the credit union philosophy of "people helping people."

Criteria and applications are available online at uofcfcu.com . Application deadline is March 31,2004. For information, call 720-565-6042.

Scholarships are part of U of C Federal Credit Union's annual community giving commitment as a Culture of Giving Business Partner. Since 2000, U of C Federal Credit Union has helped seventy-one students meet their educational expenses with scholarships totaling $72,750.
