Elevations Credit Union Names 3 to Supervisory Committee

Boulder, CO — Three new members have been added to the Supervisory Committee at Elevations Credit Union.

Brad Jones of Denver and Robert Jobin of Lafayette have been named as voting members. Meow Tan of Niwot has been named as an alternate member.

The Supervisory Committee is responsible for ensuring that the Credit Union adheres to established policies and conducts business in the best interests of its members. All internal and independent audits are reported directly to the Supervisory Committee.

Mr. Jones commented, "I'm excited about the opportunity to serve on this vital committee at Elevations Credit Union. I believe that my work as a self-employed consultant gives me a solid understanding of the economic challenges facing individuals and businesses in our dynamic economy." Mr. Jones makes volunteerism a priority in his life. He has served as a volunteer EMT with a Northglenn ambulance service, has worked previously with the Boy Scouts of America, the YWCA of Boulder County, and the admissions office at the University of Colorado at Boulder.

Mr. Jobin said, "I too am looking forward to the opportunity to serve the members of Elevations in this capacity on the committee. I have always enjoyed the challenge of responsibility in leadership positions and my background has given me the discipline necessary to get things done." Mr. Jobin has a degree in accounting, an MBA, and has worked as a Chief Financial Officer at a hospital.

Ms. Tan currently is currently employed as a Real Estate Appraiser. Other members of the Supervisory Committee include Steve Newell, Chair; Havish Vinnakota, Vice Chair; and Tom Hall, Secretary.

Elevations, with assets over $930 million, is the largest credit union serving Boulder and Broomfield Counties, providing financial services and education to over 76,000 members.
