Elevations Named “Credit Union of the Year”

Boulder, CO — Elevations Credit Union has been chosen as “The 2009 Community Credit Union of the Year” by the Credit Union National Association (CUNA). CUNA, based in Washington, D.C. and Madison, WI, is the premier national trade association serving America’s credit unions. This not-for-profit trade group is governed by volunteer directors who are elected by their credit union peers.

Elevations was named the winner in the $250-million-and-above asset category. The award was presented to Elevations at the Community Credit Union and Growth Conference in Las Vegas, NV.

According to CUNA, the award recognizes and honors the community credit union that best exemplifies the principles of the credit union movement while serving as a positive influence in the field of service.

“We’re proud to be nationally recognized in this manner,” said Gerry Agnes, President and Chief Executive Officer. “This award not only validates the commitment we’ve made to serving our 80,000 members, but also our engagement and commitment to the community.”

Elevations, with assets over $920 million, is the largest credit union serving Boulder and Broomfield Counties, providing financial services and education to over 80,000 members.

Elevations operates nine branches serving the Boulder, Broomfield, Erie, Westminster,

Lafayette, Longmont and surrounding areas. For more information, please visit
