Jeff Elinsky Joins Elevations as Financial Advisor

Boulder, CO — Jeffrey C. Elinsky has joined Elevations Credit Union as a Financial Advisor through CUSO Financial Services, L.P., the credit union's Wealth Management Services.

Mr. Elinsky has worked in the financial services industry since 1998, including serving as a Financial Advisor at both Merrill Lynch and Morgan Stanley.

He is a Series 7 General Securities Registered Representative and holds a Series 66 Investment Advisor

Representative license, along with a Series 31 Managed Futures license.

Mr. Elinsky earned his General MBA from CU-Denver in 1999 and holds a B.A. in English from the College of William and Mary.

In his role as a Financial Advisor with Elevations' Wealth Management Services, he will be able to assist the credit union's members with their financial, retirement, estate and tax planning. He also is able to provide a complete range of brokerage services, along with offering annuities, life insurance and long-term care insurance.

Mr. Elinsky is a resident of Lafayette, CO. His hobbies include golf, tennis, camping and skiing.

"Jeff brings excellent skills, professionalism and experience along with a strong focus on client service to our successful and respected Wealth Management Group," said Mary Ann Kammerer, Vice President, Service Delivery.

Elevations, with assets over $900 million, is the largest credit union serving Boulder and Broomfield Counties, providing financial services and education to over 76,000 members.
