

Elevations Credit Union Celebrates Bike Month with $2,500 in Donations

BOULDER, Colo.—June 28, 2016—Elevations Credit Union celebrated June, Bike Month in Colorado, by giving back a total of $2,500 to local community biking nonprofit organizations. The donations were part of the credit union’s “Here’s to Community Biking” campaign, which asked community members to select their favorite local biking organization in an online app, including 36 Commuting Solutions, Community Cycles, Fort Collins Bike Co-op and the Longmont Bike Garage/Bicycle Longmont.

Elevations Credit Union celebrated Colorado’s Bike Month in June with $2,500 in donations to local community biking organizations through an online contest. The credit union also participated in three Bike to Work Day breakfast stations across the Front Range of Colorado.

Participants were entered to win one of two $500 gift cards to the bike shop of their choice at the same time. The app also featured Elevations’ “Here’s to Community Biking” video, which captures the credit union’s involvement in Bike to Work Day.

Elevations participated in three Bike to Work Day stations across the Front Range of Colorado on June 22, 2016. For the 19th year, the credit union hosted a breakfast station near its Table Mesa branch in Boulder, which provided over 400 burritos this year. Elevations also participated in stations at Paul’s Coffee & Tea in Louisville and the Oak Street Plaza in Fort Collins.
