Elevations Credit Union Announces Prosperity Month in June Month-long campaign has goal to give back 1,000 volunteer hours along the Front Range

Boulder, CO – May 28, 2019 – Elevations Credit Union is honored to announce the establishment of Prosperity Month, a new opportunity to assist and serve local nonprofits through volunteering. Elevations employees and members are coming together with the goal to give back 1,000 volunteer hours to Front Range communities in just one month.

Elevations employees and members will volunteer from June 3 to 29 at the following organizations:

- A Precious Child (Broomfield)
- Community Food Share (Louisville)
- Cultivate (Boulder)
- Food Bank for Larimer County (Fort Collins and Loveland)
- Poudre Education Association (Fort Collins and Loveland)

Giving back through volunteering is part of the DNA at Elevations, as the credit union offers 16 hours of volunteer time off annually to employees. Prosperity Month further catapults this mission to give back in the community.

“Elevations is known for the good work we do in the community,” said Dennis Paul, Vice President of Community Affairs for Elevations. “Prosperity Month exemplifies our commitment to our membership and the communities we serve. We know that we are only truly prosperous together.”
