Management Team Additions at Elevations Credit Union

Boulder, CO—Elevations Credit Union has two new executives in setting the stage for major steps in 2013 and beyond. Ray Lindley has been named Senior Vice President of Lending, and Kim Felton has been named Vice President of Branch Network.

Additionally, Elevations also had named three Community Market Managers: Jack Burtzlaff is the Boulder Market Community Manager, Clint Jones is the Lafayette/Broomfield Community Manager, and Ron Pino is the Northern Community.

“These new additions will enable Elevations to continue to provide top service to our members and the communities we serve,” said Gerry Agnes, President/CEO of Elevations. “As we continue thrive in all of our markets, expanding the depth and breadth of our management team will be key in our success,” Agnes went on to say.

This team will be instrumental in driving credit union’s core purpose of providing solutions for a better life.

Meet the new additions:

Ray Lindley

Ray Lindley has almost 20 years of banking experience. He started his career at Washington Mutual on the retail side and worked his way up to a Regional Manager role, where he played a key role in starting up the Nevada market. With the merger of WAMU and Chase, Ray became the Market President for Oregon and Southwest Washington. At Elevations, Mr. Lindley is responsible for leading and directing Consumer, Retail, Mortgage and Business Lending. His focus is on strategy development, monitoring market economic trends, lending trends analysis, lending goal development and achievement, and budget establishment. A graduate of Northwest Nazarene University, Ray has a BA in accounting and an MBA in Economics. Colorado is new to Ray and he plans to enjoy all it has to offer.

Kim Felton

Kim Felton has over 20 years experience in the financial services industry. She recently joined Elevations Credit Union as the Vice President of the Branch Network. She has extensive experience leading and directing teams providing extraordinary products and services to consumers and businesses. Kim holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Management and is a graduate of the University of Colorado Graduate School of Banking. She currently serves as an Ambassador for Boulder Community Hospital and serves as a volunteer for the YWCA of Boulder County.

Jack Burtzlaff

Jack Burtzlaff brings over 15 years experience in the banking and financial services sector into his role as Community Market Manager for Boulder. His background features over 12 years leading and directing both retail and wholesale sales and operations teams covering both local and regional sales markets. Jack was responsible for leading a seven state Midwest Region in mortgage and consumer lending from 2000 through 2004. Most recently, he was leading the opening of new banking center locations in the North Metro Denver area. Jack earned his Bachelor of Arts in Communication at Bowling Green State University. Jack and his wife Denise have been married for 17 years and are raising three outstanding hockey players, Adam 13, Michael 10 and Owen 7.

Clint Jones

Clint Jones has been with Elevations Credit Union since 2008 and was recently promoted to Community Market Manager for the Broomfield/Lafayette/Louisville markets. Clint has over 20 years experience in the financial services industry with focus on management and lending. A graduate of Brigham Young University, he holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. Clint is actively involved with the Broomfield Chamber and the Broomfield Business Resource Center. He is currently participating in the Broomfield Leadership Program at the Chamber and is enjoying the opportunity to connect with the business owners in the community.

Ron Pino

Ron Pino is a Colorado native and has over 12 years experience in business and consumer banking. He holds a BA in

Organizational Leadership and is currently pursuing his MBA in Finance. Ron is the Community Market Manager for Northern

Colorado and is responsible for elevating the success of our members and business partners. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for Neighborhoods United, Crime Stoppers of Larimer County, and the south Fort Collins Business Association. Ron and his wife Jill have one daughter, Payton, who is 9 months old.
