Elevations Credit Union Reports Record Performance and Names New Slate of Officers

Boulder, CO — Elevations Credit Union held its Annual Membership Meeting on April 29th with a full house and an unconditional thumbs up for performance. “With record highs in capital, assets, loans, and shares we couldn’t be more thrilled with the performance of our management team,” said Carroll Beach, Chair of Elevations Board of Directors. Additionally, Elevations outperformed its peers in return on equity, delinquency ratio, as well as loan and share growth. Management was able to report that the credit union produced $651 Million in mortgage loans in 2013 making Elevations the top mortgage lender in Boulder County and the top credit union lender in Colorado for a second straight year. So far in 2014 two out of three Elevations mortgages are purchase transactions which is key to sustaining a robust mortgage initiative. At the conclusion of the evening Elevations announced its new slate of Board Officers for the coming year. The Board elected Katie Larson as Chair. Nancy Herbert was elected Vice Chair. Eric Jones was elected Treasurer and Carol Krismann was named Secretary. “Elevations is poised for the future with a strong Board and strong management team. We are committed to excellence in providing our membership and the communities we serve with the best products and services in the marketplace,” said newly elected Chair, Katie Larson. During the meeting, Eric Jones and Jim Menghi were elected by acclamation to the Board of Directors for 3-year terms.
