Elevations Relocates into Larger Boulder Branch, Announces Grand Re-Opening

Boulder, CO — On Monday, May 3rd, Elevations Credit Union moved into a significantly larger Boulder branch and is celebrating the event this upcoming weekend with a “Grand Re-Opening” – complete with prizes, food and financial services representatives on hand – scheduled to take place on Saturday, May 8.

The credit union’s Table Mesa branch, located in the Table Mesa Shopping Center near the intersection of Broadway and Table Mesa in Boulder, has relocated from a 1,745 sq. ft. facility into a 7,298 sq. ft. location just steps away.

The new branch opened for business on Monday, May 3. The Grand Re-Opening Event will take place from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 8. Everyone is welcome, whether they are currently members of the credit union or not. Those who stop by the branch will have a chance to win one of 50 gift certificates to local merchants, each valued at $50.00. There will be a barbecue cookout, wealth management services representatives available, a mortgage representative on site, plus “Rags,” the credit union’s kids’ savings club mascot.

“We’re looking forward to providing our members with expanded services in this larger branch,” said Robert Barr, Branch Manager (pictured). “The extra space will allow us to have mortgage and wealth management services on site for our members,” he added. The branch will include a 24-hour accessible ATM that also accepts deposits.

“This branch expansion is representative of the solid growth we’ve experienced in the Boulder area,” said Craig Burkhard, Elevations’ Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. “We see a lot of additional growth potential in this area and this new larger branch better positions us to serve our members and future members,” he added.
