University of Colorado Dean of Arts and Sciences Joins Elevations Board

Boulder, CO — Elevations Credit Union added long time University of Colorado Dean of Arts and Sciences Todd Gleeson, to its Board of Directors during the credit unions annual meeting this month. “This is a real win for Elevations Credit Union. Our roots run deep on the Boulder Campus and we could not have a better candidate. Todd’s leadership skills will be instrumental in helping us direct our organizations efforts not only on campus but though all of our markets,” said Carroll Beach, Board Chairman of Elevations Credit Union.

Mr. Gleeson served as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences on the Boulder campus from 2001 through 2012, where he led a faculty of nearly 1,000 and managed a student population in excess of 20,000. He managed an annual budget of approximately $12M, and during his tenure increased the College’s endowment from $31 to $78M. Mr. Gleeson has been a member of the faculty at the University of Colorado at Boulder since 1981. He holds a Ph.D. in developmental and cell biology from the University of California, Irvine and is a Professor in the Department of Integrative Physiology.

“Elevations Credit Union has shown an unwavering commitment to our community. I am thrilled to step up for this great local organization,” said Gleeson. “This is new territory for me but I look forward to the challenge and contributing to the credit unions success,” Gleeson went on to say.
